Happy Thursday Granger Families,

Communication plays an essential role in all we do at Granger Middle School. It not only helps to facilitate the sharing of information and knowledge but also helps us to develop collaborative relationships ensuring all voices are heard and that we meet the needs of our students. I want to be sure you know all of the ways that we communicate information to our Granger Community. Outlined below are the means by which information and resources are communicated to our families. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to call (630-375-1010), email laurie_fiorenza@ipsd.org or come in to see me. Please follow us on Twitter @GrangerIPSD204

Granger LMC

The book fair is coming! We are proud to host Anderson’s Book Fair Company for our fall book fair! www.andersonsbookshop.com

- The fair will run from Oct 26th- Nov 5th -- including during parent/teacher conferences.
- The fair is located in our Library Media Center and we will have a wonderful selection of incredible middle school titles for purchase.
- All proceeds from our book fair will directly benefit our students with new books to add to our school library collection.
- Students may shop during the school day and pay with cash or check made payable to “Anderson’s Book Fair Company”. We do charge the local tax rate.
- Parents may shop during the conference and we will accept all major credit cards.

Thank you for your support of our literacy events!

Joan M. Fitzgerald

LMC Director, Granger Middle School
