Thursday May 16, 2019

Happy Thursday,

Another reminder as we approach the final weeks of the 2018/2019 school year and are asking parents/ guardians to once again remind students to follow all school and bus rules. We have noticed an increase in “horseplay” especially on the buses. While we want to ensure all students enjoy their final days of the school year, our main priority is student safety. Any type of “horseplay” on the bus, in the lunchroom, and in the building creates a safety concern. Thank you for assisting Granger Administration and staff in maintaining a safe environment. As always, should you have any questions please do not hesitate to call (630-375-1010), email laurie_fiorenza@ipsd.org or come in to see me.
